25X1 Declas	sified in Part - Sanitiz	zed Copy Approve	d for Release 2013	3/01/30 : CIA-RDP9	0-00078R0001000	30038-5
		Oh are	Augund H	· .		MZ MZD
		is the same				)11/ST44
25 X 1	2444	The Ray Str	way.		22 June 198	8
25 X 1	AM	where "
	MEMORANDUM FO	R: Acting Do	eputy Directo	or for Adminis	tration
	FROM:	John M. Director	Ray of Logistics	5
25 X 1	SUBJECT:		f Significant od Ending 21	Logistics Ac June 1988	tivities for s of Major I	nterest That	Have Occurred	During the 25 X 1
•
	the South Par Building and Division, OL, and permits f	king Lot and the South Lo will make a for this area	the road bet t was complet rrangements t will be issu	to stripe the ued as an exte	Headquarters lities Manage newly paved a nsion of the	ment rea, 25 X 1				l general, res panded lanes).		al,
25 X 1
			SECRE			7;

	* f. As part of OL's efforts to better meet transportation needs of handicapped employees, the Motor Pool Branch has made arrangements to lease, on an ad hoc basis, a specially equipped minibus. Components having a requirement for this bus should contact the Motor Pool
;
	i. On behalf of the Office of Information Technology, OL
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June. OL reports that
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building.
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June between 0900 and 0930 hours. This work has been coordinated with
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June between 0900 and 0930 hours. This work has been coordinated with
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June between 0900 and 0930 hours. This work has been coordinated with DCI Security.
	recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June between 0900 and 0930 hours. This work has been coordinated with recently issued a modification to a contract with Eaton Corporation which provides continued support services for the Agency's Delta Data workstations. This modification is through 30 September 1988 and costs $3,139,035.  2. Significant Events Anticipated During the Coming Week:  During the period 23 through 26 June, OL reports that contractor personnel will be performing an annual safety inspection on elevators in the Original Headquarters Building, the New Headquarters Building, and the Printing and Photography Building. This work will require each elevator to be out of service for approximately 30 minutes. Only one elevator in a bank will be affected at a time. The DCI elevator will be inspected on 25 June between 0900 and 0930 hours. This work has been coordinated with DCI Security.